scorn for them by sending the Blokes into the fray yesterday, the score being 13 to 0. It wasn't a ball game, as the semi-pro pitchers never got the ball near the plate.

A rough diamond made injuries frequent. Johnny Farrell was soaked in the mouth by a bad hopping grounder and was severely cut. Leo Kavanaugh was also laid out by a bad hopper that caught him in the jaw.

This disgusted Joe, and when he heard that there was a real diamond in Gulfport he pulled out immediately.

Marsans, the Red outfielder, has agreed to return to Cincinnati. He wired the Feds for a contract, but later decided to stick to organized ball.

Hitting their old stride, the Mackmen waded through the Phils, 6 to 1, Plank and Wyckoff outpitching Mayer. Baker busted his first home run.

Each Mackman got at least one hit.

Cleveland blanked Cincinnati, 4 to 0. Willie Mitchell had the National Leaguers at his mercy, granting four hits. Cleveland smashed Yingling in the first inning for three runs. Joe Jackson got a triple and two singles.

Garfield Park golf course will open April 15 if the greens are in proper condition. As usual, the course will be congested. West Side golfers are sadly neglected by the park boards. The proposition to lay out a course in Warren Woods, Austin, will not go through this year because of a clash between park authorities and traction officials. That means Gareld Park will be jammed at all times, there will be little satisfaction in playing and expert dodging will be necessary to protect one from injury.

Francis Ouimet, open golf champion, arrived in England yesterday to prepare for British tournaments.

GREAT OLD TIMER POINTS TO IMPROVEMENT IN BASEBALL TRAINING IN LAST DECADE

Walter Wilmot            Fred Clark

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON.

Walter Wilmot and I were standing at the base of the mountain watching the Pittsburgh team at practice in Hot Springs. You remember Wilmot? Oh, well, never mind. Perhaps twenty years from now Cobb will be forgotten. Wilmot was a great player with Anson's old team.

"It isn't like the old days, Wally,"
